The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday October 16, to Saturday October 20, 1750.

AT the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 18th Day of October, 1750.

PRESENT,

Their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices in Council.

Their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices in Council were this Day pleaſed to order, that the Parliament which ſtands prorogued to Thurſday the Twenty-fifth of this Inſtant October, ſhould be further prorogued to Thurſday the Twenty-ſecond Day of November next.

Meſſina, Sept. 21. The Governor of this City has received Orders not to ſuffer any Veſſel, of what Nation ſoever, either to load or unload any Merchandize, without the Maſter's producing a Paſs. There is now in this Port a Neapolitan Frigat of 20 Guns, with two armed Barks, that have been cruizing on the Coaſt of Apuglia, and are on their Return to Naples.

Petersbourg, Oct. 6. Her Imperial Majeſty has been at one of her Country Palaces with the Great Duke and Great Dutcheſs ever ſince the 20th of laſt Month, and is not expected here theſe eight or ten Days.

Stockholm, Oct. 10. The laſt Advices from Finland ſay, that the Swediſh Troops had quitted their Quarters of Cantonment, and were retired into the Towns and Fortified Places for the Winter; that the Ruſſian Troops had all done the ſame; that they enjoy a perfect Tranquillity there; and that the Officers of both Nations lived in a very friendly Manner, and often viſited each other. The King had a few Days ago a violent Fit of the Cholick, but his Majeſty is now perfectly recovered. The Prince Succeſſor, and the Princeſs his Spouſe, went on Tueſday laſt to take the Diverſion of Hunting in the Foreſt of Nora.

Warſaw, Oct. 10. On the 7th Inſtant an Expreſs arrived at Court with the agreeable News of the Opening of the Tribunal of Petrikau on the 5th, under the Direction of the Prince Sanguski, who had been elected Marſhal of that Tribunal the preceding Day; and that they had named two Deputies to wait on his Majeſty, to acquaint him with their Proceedings; which Deputies arrived here on the 8th early in the Morning, and were immediately admitted to an Audience of the King, and met with a very gracious Reception; after which their Majeſties, accompanied by Count Bruhl, and ſome other Lords and Ladies of the Court, ſet out from hence on their Return to Dreſden.

Madrid, Oct. 12. The Letters from Cadiz of the 6th Inſtant, mention the Arrival in that Bay of four Xebecks of 20 Guns each, lately built at Carthagena; and of two French Ships of War from Louisbourg; and that the Soberbio, a Regiſter Ship, worth a Millon and a Half of Dollars, was ready to ſail for the Weſt Indies.

Lisbon, Oct. 13. Their moſt faithful Majeſties have lately taken an Excurſion of three or four Days to Mafra, partly out of Devotion, on Account of St. Francis's Feſtival, and partly for the Sake of hunting the Stag and Wild Boar in the King's Park near that Place. The next Places their Majeſties have fixed upon for Hunting are Salvaterre and Villaviciora, near the Frontiers of Spain, where Preparations are making for their Reception.

Vienna, Oct. 14. On the 4th Inſtant, being the Emperor's Name-day, there was a very numerous Court at Schonbrun, and their Majeſties dined in Publick; at which the Nuncio aſſiſted in Form, as is uſual upon ſuch Occaſions: His Excellency afterwards dined at a great Table of above 100 Covers, which was prepared for the Ambaſſadors, the principal Nobility of both Sexes, and the Foreign Miniſters. In the Evening there was an Opera performed at the Theatre of the Place, after which there was a Fire-work in the Garden. On the 6th Inſtant, being the eldeſt Archdutcheſs's Birth-Day, who then entered into the 13th Year of her Age, her Highneſs received, upon this Occaſion, for the firſt Time, Viſits in Form from the Foreign Miniſters. We have begun here, purſuant to the Orders of the Empreſs Queen, to pay off Part of the Arrears which was due to the Imperial Troops, the neceſſary Funds having been aſſigned for that Purpoſe. The Count de Haugwitz has been appointed Vice-Preſident of the Mint and of the Mines; and the Government of Hermanſtadt in Tranſylvania, vacant by the Death of General Meligni, has been given to Count Thierheim. They write from Brinn, that the States of Moravia had opened their Diet on the 20th of laſt Month; and the Day following they began to deliberate upon the Demands which had been made by Count Salm and M. Friſch, her Imperial Majeſty's Commiſſaries.

Ratisbon, Oct. 15. The Members of the Evangelical Body held Yeſterday their uſual Conference, and deliberated upon the Propoſition which had been made of laying before his Imperial Majeſty ſome new Repreſentations on the Subject of divers Religious Grievances in the Empire, and to demand the Redreſs of them; but as ſome of the Members alledged that it was not not in their Power to vote on this Occaſion before they had received new Inſtructions from their Courts, no final Reſolution was taken thereupon.

Prague, Oct. 16. The States of this Kingdom, who have been aſſembled here for ſome Days, have now under their Conſideration the Propoſitions which have been made to them on the Part of the Empreſs Queen, and in all Appearance they will ſoon be agreed to.

Dreſden, Oct. 18. Their Poliſh Majeſties arrived here Yeſterday from Pforten. The Baron de Malzahn, the new Pruſſian Miniſter, is alſo arrived here; he comes to relieve M. Voſs, who is going with the ſame Character to the Court of Vienna.

Hambourg, Oct. 20. We learn from the Frontiers of Hungary, and particularly from the Bannat of Tameſwaar, that the Turkiſh Garriſons have all been lately changed without the leaſt Diſorder on the Part of the Janiſſaries. The Maſter of a Ship arrived here from Algiers reports, that the Dey and Regency, being under ſtrong Apprehenſions of a Viſit from the French and Spaniards, have greatly augmented their Garriſons, and made all neceſſary Preparations to prevent a Surprize.

Berlin, Oct. 20. The King, accompanied by General Count Rothenbourg, arrived on Saturday laſt from Potzdam in this City. The Baron de Sierſtoff, Miniſter from the Elector of Cologn, had ſoon after a private Audience of his Majeſty. In the Evening his Majeſty paid a Viſit to the Queen Mother, and on Sunday returned to Potzdam. Prince Ferdinand of Brunſwick is ſet out for Wolfenbuttle, where he propoſes to ſtay ſome Time. The Baron de Thienen, the new Daniſh Envoy Extraordinary to this Court, arrived here on Saturday laſt from Copenhagen. On Wedneſday laſt M. Helzendorff, an Ingineer belonging to the Train of Artillery, made Tryal of a Piece of Cannon of a new Invention in the Preſence of his Majeſty and ſeveral General Officers, which was greatly admired.

Oſnabrug, Oct. 21. The Count de Richecourt, Envoy Extraordinary from their Imperial Majeſties to the King of Great Britain, arrived here on Saturday laſt from Hanover, and ſet out immediately for Vienna; his Excellency was ſaluted by the Cannon of our Ramparts both at his entring into and going out of this City. The Marqueſs de Valori, and M. Wall, the French and Spaniſh Miniſters, paſſed by this Place the ſame Day from Hanover; the firſt on his Way to Paris, and the latter for the Hague, in order to embark there for England.

Bruſſels, Oct. 22. The Aſſembly of the States of Brabant ended Yeſterday, but their Reſolutions have not as yet been made Publick. Letters from Liſle ſay, that they have eſtabliſhed there a publick Hoſpital, in which all ſuch Poor People, as uſed to be continually begging about the Streets, are obliged to work at different Employments. This Method is purſued throughout all French Flanders, and it were to be wiſhed that ſomething of the ſame Kind was eſtabliſhed in this City.

Bruſſels, Oct. 26. Before the Separation of the General Aſſembly of the States of Brabant, a Reſolution was taken to grant the Subſidies demanded of them by the Grand Chancellor of Brabant, on the ſame footing as they were laſt Year: The Grand Chancellor made alſo the three following Propoſitions to the ſaid Aſſembly, in the Name of the Empreſs Queen, 1. To abridge the Clergy of that Province of ſome of the Privileges they at preſent enjoy. 2. That the Clergy give in an exact Inventory of all the Revenues they have poſſeſſed ſince the Death of Charles the Fifth. 3. That they furniſh the Sum of two Millions of Florins. Which Propoſitions it is believed will be taken into Conſideration at the next Aſſembly; and 'tis aſſured, that this Sum of two Millions of Florins is to be employed in the rebuilding the old Court that was burnt down. Another Ordonnance is juſt publiſhed, by order of Prince Charles of Lorrain, againſt the People of Mechlin, who are continually interrupting the People employed in cutting the Canal from Louvain to that Place. Letters from Paris of the 23d of October ſay, that the Eaſt India Company have lately proved 26 Mortars, carrying two Bombs each, which they propoſe ſending to ſome of their Settlements Abroad. This Company have three Ships Loading at Port l'Orient, bound for Bengall. The Prince of Saxe is ſoon expected at this Court. As we hear nothing farther relating to the Clergy, 'tis expected they will all conform to the Orders which the Intendants have received on that Subject. The King has lately borrowed fifteen Millions of the Farmers, and Receivers General; that is to ſay, eight Millions of the Firſt, and ſeven of the Laſt; and 'tis believed ſome new Fund will ſoon be eſtabliſhed for the Payment thereof; and the rather, as the Comptroller General has a Project on foot for that Purpoſe. We learn, that the Duke of Modena is making a Port at Maſſa, in order to promote the Trade and Commerce of his Country.

Hague, Oct. 27. The Magiſtrates of Amſterdam have iſſued a Proclamation, by which they offer 6000 Florins for the apprehending and bringing to Juſtice a Perſon known by the Name of Count Tottleben, who has lately carried off a young Lady of that Town, under the Age of Fifteen, Heireſs to a conſiderable Fortune. On Friday laſt died at Rotterdam, aged Eighty-two, Count Hoogendorp, formerly Receiver General of the Union, which Place had been ſome Time ago transferred to one of his Sons.

Helvoetſluys, Oct. 28. Laſt Night arrived here, after a very tedious Paſſage, the Right Hon. the Lord Anſon, with the Yatchs under his Command.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, October 18.

Orders were iſſued for the Court's going out of Mourning on Sunday next the 21ſt Inſtant for the late King of Portugal.
